Dear Mr. Fotheringham:

You have asked my opinion the effort to rescind the Idaho legislature's approval of the proposed constitutional amendment to require a balanced federal budget. It would be within the power of the legislature, in my opinion, to rescind its approval. The courts could possibly regard the efficacy of that rescission as a political question committed by the Constitution to the discretion of Congress. Nevertheless, even if it were not judicially enforceable, such a rescission would be within the power of the Idaho legislature and it ought to be regarded by Congress as binding.

On the merits of the rescission, I support it for the reasons stated in the enclosed article from the April 22, 1987, issue of The New American.

I hope this will be helpful. If there is any further information I can provide, please let me know.

Sincerely,

Charles E. Rice
Professor of Law
